WELCOME TO #ACPA23

In the warmest sense of glad reception of your arrival that can only be conveyed through our location at the edge of the Caribbean Sea in a place where so many cultures meet. Bulbancha, “the place of other tongues” is the traditional homeland of the Houma, Choctaw, and Chitimacha peoples. It continues to be in this region that Indigenous peoples connect, exchanging knowledge and resources with each other. Honoring that history of exchange, so too, do we aspire to find connection and share knowledge and resources within our community of scholars, practitioners, and colleagues situated across that spectrum of experience.

Much as the Mississippi creates new land by releasing the silt carried downstream, we too, hope you find space to deposit that which no longer serves you. Please, use the programs and social spaces of the ACPA23 Convention to start the motor that will drive your inspiration.

The ACPA23 Convention occurs during the Association’s 99th anniversary year. The Association and Convention Planning Team put utmost thought into how to create the future for our community, our field, our campuses, and the individual spaces in which we find ourselves in the days and years to come. To such ends, during the ACPA23 Convention, you will find the time to:

- Engage with plenary speakers that unpack meaning and mattering and what it means to bear witness to ourselves in our work and lives;
- Interrogate and locate antidotes to the ways in which higher education, particularly student affairs, promulgates white supremacy;
- Deepen our understanding of the histories and futures of HBCUs, HSIs, AANAPISIs, and ISIs;
- Identify the edges and innovations of our scholarship, practice, and its engagement with the broader socio-political moment.

Seven years ago, a dedicated team of leaders in the field gathered to develop our Strategic Imperative for Racial Justice and Decolonization - we hope you will use this space to ponder taking that imperative from thought and dialogue to skill building and action as we continue to evolve into the next phase of our strategic plan. And of course, New Orleans could not be a better location for you to reconnect with the beloved community for which ACPA is known.

The Convention Planning Team carefully imagined marquee events to ensure that you can maximize your time with our amazing curriculum; robust network of Coalitions, Networks, Commissions, Communities of Practice, Chapters, International Divisions; and with Crescent City itself. While you review the program on the pages to follow, we imagine you will want to take advantage of every aspect of the day. Create space to process the learning from our leaders in scholarship and research, and consider how you will remain engaged with this community over the months leading up to our 100th anniversary in 2024.

We hope ACPA23 touches the space where your inspiration sits, motivates you to further greatness, and provides the inspiration and tools to make the next stage of your journey in the field reality. Welcome to Bulbancha, New Orleans & ACPA23! Connect, build momentum, and create our future!

With an abundance of gratitude and wishes for your wellness,

It is an honor to welcome you, on behalf of the ACPA Foundation Board of Trustees, to the 2023 ACPA Convention. ACPA has been my professional home since 1981, and I am proud to work on behalf of an association which has provided such outstanding leadership to transform higher education and students' lives.

Thanks to the generous support of ACPA members and friends, the Foundation is strong. Because of your contributions to the Path to 100 campaign, Diamond Honorees, 1924 Circle planned giving program, support of entity group fundraisers, and other contributions the Foundation has been able to provide general program support and funding for key ACPA initiatives: the Marylu K. McEwen Dissertation of the Year Award, ACPA Research and Scholarship grants, and advancing the Strategic Imperative on Racial Justice and Decolonization.

As we look ahead we know the work of ACPA will be vital in providing the research, scholarship, and professional development which enable us to continue making manifest transformational and radically inclusive higher education. Your support helps make that happen. Please continue giving at foundation.myacpa.org to sustain the leadership ACPA provides higher education.

I wish you a wonderful convention experience in which you connect, learn, stretch, and share your contributions with this amazing community. I am grateful to be in this community with you.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

WHAT IS A LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT?

A Land Acknowledgement is a formal statement that recognizes and respects Indigenous Peoples as traditional stewards of this land and the enduring relationship that exists between Indigenous Peoples and their traditional territories.

WHY DO WE RECOGNIZE THE LAND?

To recognize the land is an expression of gratitude and appreciation to those whose territory you reside on, and a way of honoring the Indigenous People who have been living and working on the land from time immemorial. It is important to understand the long-standing history that has brought you to reside on the land, and to seek to understand your place within that history.

Land acknowledgements do not exist in a past tense, or historical context: colonialism is a current ongoing process, and we need to build our mindfulness of our present participation. It is also worth noting that acknowledging the land is Indigenous protocol.

ACPA23 LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

ACPA honors with gratitude the traditional homelands of the Houma, Choctaw, and Chitimacha peoples upon which we gather today. Before New Orleans was New Orleans, and in fact, before Louisiana was Louisiana, this land was known to the Indigenous people as Bulbancha, “the place of other tongues”. This land was the traditional hunting, trading, and residential grounds of these Indigenous people. It is on this land that the Houma people established what is now known as the French Market. Furthermore, Bayou St. John, which runs through today’s City Park, was a major trading ground for the Houma people as well as other Southeastern Tribes. Moreover, the sacred ground of Congo Square is where the Houma people held their Green Corn Ceremony. These histories must not be forgotten.

We meet humbly today in the traditions of Indigenous trade on the Mississippi River; exchanging knowledge and resources with each other. We acknowledge the painful history of genocide and forced removal from this territory, and we honor and respect the many diverse Indigenous peoples who continue to cultivate relationships with this land on which we gather. By acknowledging the land and in recognition of modern and historical settler colonialism, including that perpetrated by North American institutions of higher education. The ACPA actively commits to supporting higher education in decolonizing their practice and the scholarship through our mission, values, and the Strategic Imperative for Racial Justice and Decolonization.

Pronunciations:

Houma [how-muh]; Choctaw [chaak-taa];
Chitimacha [chi-tee-maa-chuh]

ACPA23 ELDERS-IN-RESIDENCE ✨

ACPA23 ELDER-IN-RESIDENCE: LOUISE BILLIOT

Louise Billiot is a registered member of the United Houma Nation. She was raised in the bayou Native American community of Dulac, Louisiana. She currently resides in city of Houma, Louisiana which was named after the tribe.

Her education began at a small bayou community school designated for tribal members. Prior to 1962 tribal citizens of the United Houma Nation were not allowed to graduate in public schools in Terrebonne and Lafourche Parish. Determined to get an education Louise holds a bachelor's degree from Nicholls State University.

She is currently employed with the tribe as a vocational rehabilitation counselor. She has been employed with her tribe continuously for the last 33 years and plans to retire in 2023. Her work includes assisting tribal members of the United Houma Nation and Chitimacha tribes with disabling conditions to return to or obtain employment.

She is Traditional Woman's Cloth Dancer and traditional Houma palmetto basket weaver. She co-founded and coordinated the Bayou Eagles Native American Dance Group through her volunteer work with the Dulac Community Center of Dulac, Louisiana for over 15 years. She has conducted native presentations at numerous schools, libraries and other community events throughout Louisiana including the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival.

Louise Billiot is honored to be your chosen Elder-in-Residence at this year's Convention.

ACPA23 ELDER-IN-RESIDENCE: CORINE FRANCIS PAULK

Corine Francis Paulk is an 80 year old member of the United Houma Nation. She was born and raised in Dulac, Louisiana. She attended the Dulac Indian Mission School, which was established after visiting missionaries discovered schools and education were not provided to Native Americans in the Dulac area. The Mission School did not provide an education past 8th grade and the Terrebonne Parish School Board refused to allow Native students to attend any of the public schools in the area. She attended the Indian Mission School until the age of 12 years old.

Corine began working at the Dulac Community Center which started Corine's long history of giving back to her church and fellow Tribal members. She retired in 2004 after 30 years of working to provide better educational services for Native students.

Corine has been giving back to her community members, always going above and beyond, because of her selflessness and loving heart for her fellow Tribal members. She is a mentor, leader, historian and friend to countless community families and youth. Her devotion and inspiration continue to drive her to advocate for continued education and programs for our United Houma Nation citizens. All of the "good" she has done for all our communities along the bayous cannot be measured in words.

★ ★ STRATEGIC IMPERATIVE FOR RACIAL JUSTICE & DECOLONIZATION

In 2016, ACPA-College Educators International embarked on an exciting journey to address systemic racism and historical and contemporary colonization apparent within higher education institutions and student affairs as a field. As such, the organization, moves forward in its work to support faculty, administrators, and students to reflect upon their investments in oppressive systems of domination and to act to rebuild equitable places where all people can thrive and live out their full potentials. With that in mind, the Association works toward these goals with recognition of the following guiding words.

ACPA will direct resources, energy, and time toward addressing racial justice in student affairs and higher education around the world. Our lens is intersectional, intentional, and directed. The focus is on reducing the oppression of communities of color at the intersections of their identities, knowing that all oppressions are linked and that the work is ongoing. Our goal is to provide leading research and scholarship; tools for personal, professional, and career development; and innovative praxis opportunities for members that will actively inform and reshape higher education. We move toward this goal knowing that the roles and daily tasks of our jobs are important to the functioning of colleges and universities. We also know that racial justice and decolonization and the tasks of our jobs do not sit as dichotomous poles. Racial justice and decolonization is at our core; it underlies the work we each must do every day, in every way we can.

To summarize these operational truths, as an Association, ACPA believes:

- All forms of oppression are linked.
- Racism and colonization are real, present, enduring, intersectional, and systemic forms of oppression.
- Racism and colonization have informed the experience of all of us in higher education.
- Advocacy and social change require us to work to dismantle racism and colonization.
- Our collective education, research and scholarship, advocacy, and capacity will create positive change in higher education.
- We believe in and have hope for our individual capacity, desire, and drive to grow, learn, and change.

As a Convention steering team, we welcome you to take a risk and engage in a curricular offering that may seem divergent from the types of learning and development opportunities with which you regularly engage. We as a program team, and an Association, are here to support you in the ways we can and we hope you will join us in rethinking and reshaping the future of higher education and student affairs.

Advancing Knowledge

ACPA/NASPA PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES

ADVISING AND SUPPORTING (A/S)

Addresses the knowledge, skills, and dispositions related to providing advising and support to individuals and groups through direction, feedback, critique, referral, and guidance. Through developing advising and supporting strategies that take into account self-knowledge and the needs of others, we play critical roles in advancing the holistic wellness of ourselves, our students, and our colleagues.

ASSESSMENT, EVALUATION, AND RESEARCH (AER)

Focuses on the ability to design, conduct, critique, and use various AER methodologies and the results obtained from them, to utilize AER processes and their results to inform practice, and to shape the political and ethical climate surrounding AER processes and uses in higher education.

LAW, POLICY, AND GOVERNANCE (LPG)

Includes the knowledge, skills, and dispositions relating to policy development processes used in various contexts, the application of legal constructs, compliance/policy issues, and the understanding of governance structures and their impact on one's practice.

LEADERSHIP (LEAD)

Addresses the knowledge, skills, and dispositions required of a leader, with or without positional authority. Leadership involves both the individual role of a leader and the leadership process of individuals working together to envision, plan, and affect change in organizations and respond to broad-based constituencies and issues. This can include working with students, student affairs colleagues, faculty, and community members.

ORGANIZATIONAL AND HUMAN RESOURCES (OHR)

Includes knowledge, skills, and dispositions used in the management of institutional human capital, financial, and physical resources. This competency area recognizes that student affairs professionals bring personal strengths and grow as managers through challenging themselves to build new skills in the selection, supervision, motivation, and evaluation of staff; resolution of conflict; management of the politics of organizational discourse; and the effective application of strategies and techniques associated with financial resources, facilities management, fundraising, technology, crisis management, risk management and sustainable resources.

PERSONAL AND ETHICAL FOUNDATIONS (PEF)

Involves the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to develop and maintain integrity in one's life and work; this includes thoughtful development, critique, and adherence to a holistic and comprehensive standard of ethics and commitment to one's own wellness and growth. Personal and ethical foundations are aligned because integrity has an internal locus informed by a combination of external ethical guidelines, an internal voice of care, and our own lived experiences. Our personal and ethical foundations grow through a process of curiosity, rejection, and self-authorship.

SOCIAL JUSTICE AND INCLUSION (SJI)

While there are many conceptions of social justice and inclusion in various contexts, for the purposes of this competency area, it is defined here as both a process and a goal which includes the knowledge, skills, and dispositions needed to create learning environments that foster equitable participation of all groups while seeking to address and acknowledge issues of oppression, privilege, and power. This competency involves student affairs educators who have a sense of their own agency and social responsibility that includes others, their community, and the larger global context. Student affairs educators may incorporate social justice and inclusion competencies into their practice through seeking to meet the needs of all groups, equitably distributing resources, raising social consciousness, and repairing past and current harms on campus communities.

STUDENT LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT (SLD)

Addresses the concepts and principles of student development and learning theory. This includes the ability to apply theory to improve and inform student affairs practice.

TECHNOLOGY (TECH)

Focuses on the use of digital tools, resources, and technologies for the advancement of student learning, development, and success as well as the improved performance of student affairs professionals. Included within this area are knowledge, skills, and dispositions that lead to the generation of digital literacy and digital citizenship within communities of students, student affairs professionals, faculty members, and colleges and universities as a whole.

VALUES, PHILOSOPHY, AND HISTORY (VPH)

Involves knowledge, skills, and dispositions that connect the history, philosophy, and values of the student affairs profession to one's current professional practice. REGISTRATION

ACPA23 Registration is located in the Preservation Hall Foyer on the second floor of the New Orleans Marriott. Please visit during operating hours:

- Saturday, 25 March: 11:00AM – 4:00PM
- Sunday, 26 March: 8:00AM – 6:00PM
- Monday, 27 March: 7:30AM – 6:00PM
- Tuesday, 28 March: 7:30AM – 2:00PM

All paid participants and guests receive name badges, which are necessary for entrance to Convention events. Name badges must be worn and visible at all times while attending Convention events and activities. Most name badges can be replaced at Registration during open hours. There is a $10 fee for name badge reprints. ACPA's value of social justice indicates the importance of acknowledging individual identities. Pronouns, in place of a name, can represent an individual's identity and/or how a person desires others to address them. When registering for the ACPA23 Convention, each individual has the ability to indicate their pronoun(s). If you would like to add or change the pronoun(s) on your name badge, you can do so at Convention Registration. By including your pronouns on your name badge and providing your pronoun when introducing yourself, asking someone for theirs, and using their pronouns, you are modeling inclusivity.

CONVENTION RESOURCES

ACCESSIBILITY GUIDE/ACCESS INFORMATION

If you have difficulty accessing any portions of Convention or have suggestions on how we can make ACPA23 more accessible, visit ACPA Registration in the Preservation Hall Foyer on the second floor of the New Orleans Marriott. For more information on accessibility, there is a full access guide available on the ACPA23 website.

ALL USE RESTROOMS

All Use Restrooms are available to all Convention participants inclusive of all gender identities and expressions. Historically, restrooms have been a way to reinforce sex assigned at birth (female/male) and gender (woman/man) identities and expressions, but as an association, ACPA actively challenges these traditional definitions. Thus, ACPA converts many of the gender assigned restrooms to All Use Restrooms without fear of harassments and threats to individual users. All Use Restrooms will be clearly marked with large signs outside of each restroom entrance and are also designated on the maps in the back of the program book. In addition, we are aware Convention participants may need or want a gendered restroom, these are available as well and labeled on the maps in the back of the program book.

EQUITY AND INCLUSION NOTIFICATION FORM

The Equity and Inclusion Notification Form is used to raise awareness about any bias situation or event believed to have a negative impact on ACPA members, particularly across marginalized social identity group membership. To report a bias situation or event, access the form at: jotform.com/acpa/bias_incident_form.

FAITH, SPIRITUALITY, RELIGION, & MEANING RESOURCES

Our accessible Meditation, Prayer, and Reflection Room sponsored by the Commission for Spirituality, Faith, Religion, and Meaning is available in Marriott Bacchus (4th floor) & Sheraton Grand Couteau (5th floor). For a list of places of worship in the New Orleans area, visit the ACPA23 website.

LACTATION AND FAMILY SPACES

Designated lactation space is available in the Marriott Blues Office on the 4th Floor each day of Convention from 8:00am-6:00pm.

WRITER'S LOUNGE

SPONSORED BY HEARTFUL EDITOR

The Writer's Lounge is designed to be a designated writing space for all association members. Imagined by the ACPA Writer's Retreat faculty, this will be a #ShutUpAndWrite space for writing and project work. Information (in the form of flyers, pamphlets, books, etc.) will be available so that visitors can learn about writing opportunities across the association and have access to writing support materials. We are also seeking support pens/pencils, notepads and other items that would be supportive of members who are writing in the lounge. Heartful Editor will co-sponsor this quiet space for writing, including snacks and materials.

CAREER RESOURCES

CAREER DEVELOPMENT & WELLNESS

Professional Development is a core value of ACPA and the Annual Convention experience. Our aim for Career Development and Wellness at ACPA23 in New Orleans is to focus on sustainable career resources that will serve attendees during and beyond convention.

ACPA23 Educational Sessions will be marked with a briefcase icon to indicate their connection to career development and/or wellness.

RELATIONSHIPS

ACPA23 is excited to offer a Career Wellness Meetup, designed to serve as the primary networking and connection point to the convention experience. This time is intended for ACPA attendees to network, learn about current opportunities, and engage with other attendees with all levels of experience. The ultimate goal of the meetup is to provide a designated space where attendees can network with one another. While this will not serve as a job placement event, there may be hiring organizations and members seeking positions in attendance. Whether you have a specific search or job posting, or you are looking to be in a space for mentorship or support, join us for a career-oriented relationship-building session:

- Sunday, 26 March | 1:00PM- 2:30PM
Sheraton, Grand Chenier

DIALOGUE

Toward the conclusion of 2022, a task force chartered by ACPA President Andrea D. Domingue offered a 21st Century Employment in Higher Education Task Force report. This serves as a call to action and guiding framework toward a sustainable future for the higher education and student affairs profession. Along with revisiting the report, make further meaning of antidotes to supremacist culture by participating in the following conversations at ACPA23:

Career Focused Plenary Session: What Makes Employment in Higher Education (Un)Sustainable + What We Can Do About It

Monday, 27 March | 2:45 - 3:45PM
Marriott, Grand Ballroom

Presented by: Dr. Léna Crain, Dr. Gudrun Nyunt, and Dr. Kelvin Rutledge

The Great Resignation in 21st Century Higher Education has drawn our attention to the work experiences of student affairs professionals; retention of professionals is, however, not a new challenge in our field nor is it a singular campus issue. Our organizational values challenge us to consider the well-being and experiences of professionals in the field in order to sustain the learning environments we support. Join presenters in a conversation exploring why we do critical work on our campuses every day, ways supremacist cultures emerge in our work environments, and antidotes that can change social norms creating a more positive culture in the students affairs profession.

ACCESSIBLE RESOURCES

Because career wellness is both seasonal and evergreen, we have also developed digital content specifically offered to convention attendees for ongoing reflection, grounding, and empowerment in your career growth. Particular attention was paid to:

- Discerning supremacist culture in job searches
- Resume and cover letter formatting: how do we signal alignment with antidotes/resistance to supremacist culture?
- Liberating interview approaches with attention to power dynamics and humanizing a process

Dr. Antonio Duran, & Dr. Jacqueline Mac

A number of students and higher education professionals flock to Minority Serving Institutions (MSIs) and Historically Black Colleges & Universities (HBCUs) as respite from white supremacy. The charge and mission of these institutions are more important than ever in this political climate. HBCUs were initially created as separate but equal spaces and many MSIs' designations are contemporary markers that exist among historically white institutions. How has the purpose of these institutions evolved throughout the years? Our panelists will discuss the challenges of fluctuating enrollment, hypervisibility from local, state, and federal governments, historical and systemic underfunding, and creating a climate where students, staff, and faculty matter and thrive. This session is for those interested in understanding some of the issues facing MSIs and HBCUs.

6:00PM - 10:00PM // Sheraton, Grand Ballroom E

The Commission on Student Involvement has partnered with Hands On New Orleans to create an on-site service opportunity during ACPA 2023. Mardi Gras season, which recently concluded in New Orleans, creates a massive amount of plastic waste each year in the form of beads and throws. Hands On New Orleans has been working with ARC of Greater New Orleans over the past several years to collect large amounts of beads that are unwanted and discarded at the conclusion of parades. Through volunteer efforts, like this one, those beads are sorted, re-packaged, and sold back to the Mardi Gras Krewes the following year. As a result, one string of beads can be used again, and perhaps again and again. Our service project will keep literal pallet loads of plastic out of dumps and waterways. On top of that, the proceeds of the repackaged bead sales will support individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities in Greater New Orleans.

CSI members will be present to direct volunteers. However, the project will be open throughout the duration of convention, and instructions will be provided for self-directed sorting.

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHTS

A GATHERING SPACE FOR THOSE WHO HAVE EXPERIENCED CAMPUS VIOLENCE

8:00 - 9:00AM // Marriott, Studio 6

Presented by: Z Nicolazzo, University of Arizona; Kristen Renn, Michigan State University; Tricia Shalka, University of Rochester

In the aftermath of violence at Michigan State University and the University of Arizona – among others in the last year – we have heard from colleagues and friends with messages of support. We are offering space for a community of listening and support for convention attendees who are affected by campus violence. We will provide a brief introduction and create small discussion groups for sharing experiences and peer support. Please note that this session is not designed as a therapeutic space for processing trauma but as a space to come together in a caring, professional community of educators who are affected by violent events on college and university campuses.

ACPA MARKETPLACE

9:00 - 1:00PM // Marriott, Preservation Foyer (2nd Floor)

Meet and greet with ACPA23 Exhibitors (listed on page 126) while learning about the various education and offerings they can provide to you and your campus. Marketplace is a time to gather new ideas, connect with campus partners, and consider student needs.

IMAGINING THE FUTURE COLLECTIVE VISIONING SESSIONS

10:30 - 11:30AM // Marriott, Balcony I

Join the ACPA @ 100 Planning Committee for an interactive session to dream about the future of our association and the field of higher education and student affairs. Thoughts shared at these sessions will be used to develop a shared vision for our future, revealed during our 100 Year Anniversary Year.

PLENARY: WHAT MAKES EMPLOYMENT IN HIGHER EDUCATION (UN)SUSTAINABLE + WHAT WE CAN DO ABOUT IT

2:45 - 3:45PM // Marriott, Grand Ballroom

Presented by: Dr. Léna Crain, Dr. Gudrun Nyunt, and Dr. Kelvin Rutledge

The Great Resignation in 21st Century Higher Education has drawn our attention to the work experiences of student affairs professionals; retention of professionals is, however, not a new challenge in our field nor is it a singular campus issue. Our organizational values challenge us to consider the well-being and experiences of professionals in the field in order to sustain the learning environments we support. Join presenters in a conversation exploring why we do critical work on our campuses every day, ways supremacist cultures emerge in our work environments, and antidotes that can change social norms creating a more positive culture in the students affairs profession.

COALITION & NETWORK BLOCK SOCIALS

6:00 - 10:00PM // Marriott, 3rd & 4th Floor

Annual event hosted by Coalition for Multicultural Affairs (CMA) that highlights the Networks and their cultural aspects and impact of the convention city. CMA awards are also presented at this time. All Block Social times and locations can be found on page 59.

ASSOCIATION AWARDS CEREMONY

PLENARY: THE EVOLUTION OF MSIS: CHARGE, CHALLENGE, AND COMMUNITY

3:00PM - 4:00PM // Marriott, Grand Ballroom

Presented by: Dr. Felecia Commodore, Dr. Antonio Duran & Dr. Jacqueline Mac

Moderated by: Dr. Stephen Santa-Ramirez

A number of students and higher education professionals flock to Minority Serving Institutions (MSIs) and Historically Black Colleges & Universities (HBCUs) as respite from white supremacy. The charge and mission of these institutions are more important than ever in this political climate. HBCUs were initially created as separate but equal spaces and many MSIs' designations are contemporary markers that exist among historically white institutions. How has the purpose of these institutions evolved throughout the years? Our panelists will discuss the challenges of fluctuating enrollment, hypervisibility from local, state, and federal governments, historical and systemic underfunding, and creating a climate where students, staff, and faculty matter and thrive. This session is for those interested in understanding some of the issues facing MSIs and HBCUs.

CLOSING SESSION WITH PRESTON MITCHUM

From “Don’t Say Gay/Trans” to Banning AP African American History Courses: The Coordinated Attack on Black and LGBTQ+ People, Culture, and Identities in 2023 and Beyond

In 2022, more than 220 anti-LGBTQ+ bills were introduced across the United States. Among other things, these bills targeted LGBTQ+ youth’s ability to play sports that aligned with their gender as well as access to gender affirming and trans-related medical care. Last year, we especially saw numerous bills restricting speech and expression in education settings, infamously referred to as “Don’t Say Gay/Trans” bills. At the same time there was an upward trend of anti-LGBTQ bills, state legislatures were introducing bills uplifting white supremacist ideology and attacking critical race theory, and other teachings deemed to be “woke,” in the classroom. Unfortunately, this uptick of attacks on marginalized communities did not stop in 2022.

In 2023, states like Florida banned an AP course on African American studies, a move by Governor DeSantis that’s part of a growing trend of coordinated attacks just in time for elections. Black LGBTQ+ youth, a community particularly susceptible to harm and violence, also face the compounded reality of being attacked at the intersection of race, sexual orientation, and gender identity. This session will elaborate on the uptick in state and federal legislative attacks on Black people and LGBTQ+ youth as well as what this means for this year and beyond.
